Hawaiian Dollars Sell For Forty-Five and Fifty-Five Cents Each -- 1900 Nickles

The joyful josher is abruad in the page. few days has had a deal of fun of the expense of the credulous members of the commonwealth whom he jound had King street, ime to listen to his song.

It is not generally known that Hawalian dollars of the good King Kain-kaua can be bought at the manks for forty-five and fifty-five cents each, but nevertheless this is so and knowing this the joyful Josher has had fun. As the pieces pass at par several of the thrifty ones along the waterfront got to figuring out how they could bay lollars for forty-five and fifty-five cents each and pass them at par, thus netting onsiderable little gain.

Postmaster Oat and Captala Campill were talking the matter over tols morning in the Wilder's ship chandlery office when Oscar Lewis, the shipping master made his appearance. Scenting an opportunity to make an honest penny without hard work he begged to be put wise to the game." When the rath dawned upon him he jumped at the chance, remarking that he knew two firms in San Francisco who would take the money at par if they were not yet "on" to the slump. The next seen of Lewis he was out with a gang of mailors carrying money sacks, and was on his way to the banks to buy all the Hawaiian dollars in sight at the rate proted him by Campbell and Oat. Meeting his partner, Frank Turk in on the scheme to make a fortune. Turk gazed on Lewis for a few secads and then handed him a bunch of ir that would have cooled a piece of ce. The burden of his talk was that ewis was a fit subject for the nut facand should go way up on a hill and stand on his head to get his brain put title in the matter of certain land holdin place again. Lewis was out for the ings in Manoa valley, for his pariner's reason tried to contract has not yet been awarded, humor him and finally asked him to but the bids are in hand. add forty-five and fifty-five cents to-gether and find if the sum total was farmer's ball tomorrow evening, for Oat told him that the report was true and did not seem surprised as the stamps have always sold at the dress properly in the future. price. Berrey immediately put down five cents and asked for fifty-two, two cent stamps and was then told he was shy nine-nine cents of the cost price. That although thirteen two cents stamps were sold for one cent and a quarter, five cents was not enough to ay for fifty-two twos.

It was then explained to him that one cent and a quarier amounted to members of the Builders Exchange it twenty-six cents and when he worked Honoluis compiled and set in their releft muttering something about tion

THE BROTHERS MADE GOOD TRIP

The steamer Lehua, which arrived here from the island of Molokal last vening experienced the best kind of weather during her trip. In coming lown the channel yesterday afternoon off Kamalo the little schooner. The Brothers, was passed going along at a great rate with a strong wind aft and the water as smooth as a mill pond. The little vessel left here about 2:20 yesterday morning and at 1:30 yesterlay afternoon had gone about sixtysix miles. This is considered a good performance although the wind sea was all in her favor. She will take a look in at the landing at the Settlenent and then go to Kahului to load palat for the lepers.
